New York Stock Market.

New York, June 6.—Money on call has been easy at 1 per cent., last loan at 1 and being offered at 1 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 3½@4 per cent.

The action of the Senate yesterday in passing the sugar schedule as recommended by the Finance Committee was considered very favorable to those refining interests, and proved to be a big bull card for those operating for higher prices in American Sugar stock. This stock opened with a boom and 20,000 shares were traded in in the first few minutes of business. It was impossible to get the first transactions as 10,000 shares ...d ...d at 100 down to 107, simultaneously with the drop of the chairman's gavel in opening the board. It got up to 108¼. When the regular dividends were announced some of the bulls attempted to sell and a reaction followed to 105½; but late in the day there was a rally to 107½@108. The talk that the House will not agree to the Senate schedule apparently has no effect upon the bulls on the stock, who at the moment propose to place no credence in these rumors.

Net changes for the day show an advance ...anywhere from ...to 1½, Rock Island leading.

In the specialties, New York and New Haven sold to 181½, a rise of 4½, and General Cordage preferred 1½ to 45½. Sales were 217,... shares, of which Sugar stood for 87,300 shares.

The bond market was strong, sales $782,-000.

BACTERIA IN MILK.

An Expert Says It Is Never Fit to Drink Unless Sterilized.

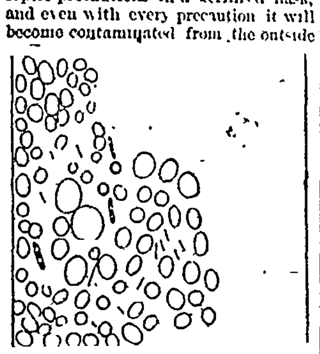

[Special Correspondence.]

PHILADELPHIA, May 24. Modern research has developed the fact that much of the milk used in our cities and towns is unfit for drinking purposes. No matter how healthy the cows may be, the contamination of milk from extraneous sources with bacteria is now generally acknowledged by the medical profession. Dr. Alfred S. Houghton, recently employed as an expert by the department of labor at Washington to examine into the biological and chemical constituents of the air in the slums of New York and this city, and who has been making and is still making investigations at the Carnegie laboratory in New York city into the character and effects of the bacteria found in milk, says: "It is not only true that tubercle bacilli, typhoid bacilli and other pathogenic bacteria are frequently found in milk, but equally true that no milk one hour old is ever found free from bacteria of some sort or another, and consequently never fit for food by infants or invalids. I might with perfect propriety go further and say that no milk, unless it had been sterilized, is fit for drinking purposes. By sterilizing I do not mean boiling, as that renders milk unfit for food, especially in the case of infants."

The temperature to which it is necessary to raise milk in order to sterilize it may be judged by the following table, which shows the thermal death point of some of the most common bacteria:

	Fahrenheit.
Spirillum Choleræ Asiaticæ	125.6
Spirillum Tyrogenicis (cheese)	125.6
Bacillus Typhi Abdominalis	132.8
Bacillus Schweine-rothlauf	134.1
Bacillus Murisepticus	134.1
Bacillus Neapolitanus	143.6
Bacillus Cavicida	143.6
Bacillus Pneumoniæ	132.8
Bacillus Pyocyanus	132.8
Bacillus Indicus	132.4
Bacillus Acidi Lactici	132.8
Staphylococcus Pyogenes Aureus	136.4
Staphylococcus Pyogenes Citreus	143.6
Staphylococcus Pyogenes Albus	143.6
Streptococcus Pyogenes	129.2
Micrococcus Tetragonus	136.4
Sarcina Luteus	147.2
Sarcina Aurantiacus	143.6
Bacillus Anthracis	129.2
Bacillus Diphtheriæ	143.6
Bacillus Tuberculosis	160.0

The thermal death point of bacteria, then, is not lower than 160 degrees F., but the spores of the several bacteria survive that point, and it is necessary to carry the temperature up to 180 to destroy them. Milk always contains bacteria unless drawn with the utmost antiseptic precautions in a sterilized flask, and even with every precaution it will become contaminated from the outside air. In the udder of a healthy cow it is sterile, but in tuberculous cows, where the milk glands are involved, tubercle bacilli may find their way into the milk in considerable quantity. Quite recently ex-Vice President Morton was compelled to kill a number of his celebrated herd of well bred cattle on this account.

TUBERCLE BACILLI IN MILK.

The use of milk as a food by those ill with some infectious disease, and the use of bottles as a means of transportation combine to expose pure milk to the contamination of disease germs in a way that there is only one means of preventing, and that is sterilization of milk and the bottles or cans in which it is conveyed.

In Boston not long ago two investigators examined a large number of specimens of milk and found that on the average the milk obtained in a clean stable from healthy cows, milked with every precaution into sterile flasks, contained 530 bacteria to the cubic centimeter (about one-fourth of a teaspoonful). When, however, the milkman used an ordinary milk pail of flaring form, seated himself with more or less disturbance of the bedding and vigorously shook the udder over the pail during the process of milking, the number was very much higher on an average of 30,500 bacteria to the cubic centimeter. The average of 15 samples taken from the tables of persons living outside Boston was 69,143 per cubic centimeter, the average of 57 samples taken from milk wagons was 2,355,500 per cubic centimeter, while an average of 10 samples from groceries in the city of Boston was 4,577,000 per cubic centimeter. Professor Renk found in the milk supply of Halle from 6,000,000 to 30,000,000 per cubic centimeter, a number considerably greater than usually found in the sewage of American cities.

All this goes to show the importance of having all the milk used for drinking purposes thoroughly sterilized, and no process can be regarded as proper that fails to bring the temperature up to 180 or 190 degrees F. for at least 20 minutes.

Any family can, with little trouble and care, sterilize their own milk for drinking purposes. All that is requisite is a water bath in which the milk inclosed in a clean bottle can be raised to a temperature of 180 or 190 F. A good thermometer is also indispensable. The great importance of all this arises from the fact that milk is not only a useful but is the most valuable of all foods for infants and invalids and a very agreeable beverage for any one to drink. Many people say, "Oh, I can't drink milk. I like it, but it does not agree with me." This is evidence that the milk they have been using is not pure, that bacterial changes have taken place in it, all of which could be avoided if the milk were sterilized.

40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

The Jubilee Year.

We present herewith what is considered a good representation of Sir George Williams, the founder of the Young Men's Christian Association. On the 5th day of June that the 5100 Young Men's Christian Associations of the world were standing with their thoughts toward the metropolis of the world, London, England, where representatives from every continent in the world and almost every tongue, are joined in a fitting celebration of the close of the first fifty years of the association's history, for it was on the 6th day of June, 1844, that George Williams and his associates organized the first association.

Space does not permit going into detail suffice it to say that the membership of the association of various lands now numbers 800,000 young men, most of them between the ages of 18 and 30.

The associations also own property aggregating over $30,000,000, of which $16,000,000 is owned in America. Two hundred and ninety-one American associations have buildings of their own, 118 report building funds paid in amounting $453,000. Space forbids further detail of this truly magnificent organization and the work it has accomplished. Our readers are urged to secure a copy of Harper's Weekly of June 2, if possible, which contains an exceedingly well written article on the subject; also two full pages of cuts of various association buildings.

Don't fail to see the new curio store at No. 5 South Tejon, El Paso Bank Building, as every type of Indian and Mexican relic is now on exhibition.

First-class pasture at Austin Bluff; 1800 acres; terms reasonable. Leave orders at grocery, 623 North Tejon street.

From date of opening four-horse coach will meet daily Colorado Midland train at Woodland Park, leaving Colorado Springs at 11 a. m. Telephone connection with railroad. New plumbing is now in course of construction and will be thoroughly modern and complete when finished. A WORD WITH YOU.

Two blades of grass where there was one before. That's what our garden hose makes; and that's what Jerry Simpson says is "honest productive effort." Think of it! Velvety lawns, fruitful gardens; refreshened, rarefied atmosphere. This is the picture our garden hose calls up, and makes you feel a fatherly interest in all creation. After the evening meal he gives to the grass and flowers the drink that the skies have denied, supplementing Dame Nature's work, correcting her shortcomings. We can find poetry in garden hose. You can not find profit in cheap garden hose. We sell the most durable garden hose in the world. Don't forget that we are leaders in hose novelties.

40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

The Jubilee Year.

We present herewith what is considered a good representation of Sir George Williams, the founder of the Young Men's Christian Association. On the 5th day of June that the 5100 Young Men's Christian Associations of the world were standing with their thoughts toward the metropolis of the world, London, England, where representatives from every continent in the world and almost every tongue, are joined in a fitting celebration of the close of the first fifty years of the association's history, for it was on the 6th day of June, 1844, that George Williams and his associates organized the first association.

Space does not permit going into detail suffice it to say that the membership of the association of various lands now numbers 800,000 young men, most of them between the ages of 18 and 30.

The associations also own property aggregating over $30,000,000, of which $16,000,000 is owned in America. Two hundred and ninety-one American associations have buildings of their own, 118 report building funds paid in amounting $453,000. Space forbids further detail of this truly magnificent organization and the work it has accomplished. Our readers are urged to secure a copy of Harper's Weekly of June 2, if possible, which contains an exceedingly well written article on the subject; also two full pages of cuts of various association buildings.

Don't fail to see the new curio store at No. 5 South Tejon, El Paso Bank Building, as every type of Indian and Mexican relic is now on exhibition.

A WORD WITH YOU.

Two blades of grass where there was one before. That's what our garden hose makes; and that's what Jerry Simpson says is "honest productive effort." Think of it! Velvety lawns, fruitful gardens; refreshened, rarefied atmosphere. This is the picture our garden hose calls up, and makes you feel a fatherly interest in all creation. After the evening meal he gives to the grass and flowers the drink that the skies have denied, supplementing Dame Nature's work, correcting her shortcomings. We can find poetry in garden hose. You can not find profit in cheap garden hose. We sell the most durable garden hose in the world. Don't forget that we are leaders in hose novelties.
